The editor in his "Sanctum" sat,
With his vimos grim and sour,
was slient without save the wind in the street
of the "Chamary" pursuing his usual beat,
Calling the midnight hour!
His "peepers" were swollen and red,
The rushiight was melting away,
"And to-morrow," to himself he said,
"Is publication day."

Write! write!! write!!

I fear I am growing dumb!

I've divers notions in my head,
Which feels like a ton or two of load,
But they vanish as fast as they come!
Brash, and selssors, and paste,
Paste, and selssors, and brush!

If I could collar one bright "IDEA,"

I could write with a perfect rush!

A nod! and a start! and a nod!
My pen's worn down to a stump:
I panse, and ponder, and scratch my pate.
My eves the size of a pewter plate,
And my scence on the table! bump!
Nod! nod!! nod!!!
As! set tumbled up in a heap—
What a sin subscribers are so scarce. As I set tumbled up in a heap— What a sin subscribers are so scarce AND THE PAPER SO VERY CHEAP

Write! write!! write!!!
With paper all blotted and smeared,
Write! write!! write!!!
With eyes all blinded and bleared!
Brush, and scissors, and paste,
Paste, and scissors, and brush!
Tis enough to drive an Editor mad,
And his finer feelings crush,

Oh! man, who no paper will take.
For the use of your children and wife!
The not the pens and ink ye waste,
But the Editor's precious life!
Write! write!! write!!!
For a livelihood! must—
I wear out my shoes collecting the news,
And walk till I'm like to "bust."

Trudge! trudge! trudge!!!

With cheeks both hollow and thin!
Trudge! trudge!!! trudge!!!
And all for a little "In"!
For pleasure I have no space,
Nota moment to lose have I—
Rags and disgrace stare me in the face,
So "ROOT, PIGGIE, OR DIE!"

Wake! wake!! wake!!!
Ye who learning hold as naught—
Do ye not know, for a dollar or so,
What your children can be taught!
Take! take!! take!!!
The paper, and read the news;
Don't let your offspring live and die
Likea parcel of wild Yahoos!

Sersteh! seratch!! seratch!!! While my brain is occing away—
Sernich! scratch!!! scratch!!!
Till my hair is turning gray—
Oh! man, for a moment bethink
How the PRINTER you rob of his labor,
When a paper you fob from a front doc
knob,
Or borrow one from your neighbor!

Write! write!! write!!!
Oh! but I'm wears and worn!
Write! write!! write!!! And the cocks are crowing for morn!
And when for my home I start,
I reel like a famished RAT,
Folks say on the sly, as I totter by—
"THERE HE GOES WITH A BRICK IN HIS HAT!"

The editor in his "sanctum" sat, With his visage sad and sour.

For the Herald of Freedom. MOUND CITY, Dec. 6th, 1858. ED, HERALD OF FREEDOM:-The following proceedings of a mass meeting of the citizens of Linn county, held for the purpose of taking into consideration recent difficulties happening in this part of the Territory, were ordered to be printed in the Lawrence papers. The meeting was called to order by the PARTICULAR attention given to all kinds of april appointment of Rev. Mark Robinson Chairman of the meeting. A committee of three, consisting of J. Danford, B. F.

Broadhead and S. E. Smith, was appointed to draft a declaration of sentiment, expressive of the views of the meeting in regard to the existing state of affairs.

The committee reported the following Westport, Mo., 1858.

The committee reported the following Westport, Mo., 1858.

The committee reported the following the content of the content of the committee and the content of the The committee reported the following agreement, which, after full discussion, was unanimously adopted, as a final settlement of all former political difficulties.

AGREEMENT. The citizens of Linn county, assembled in mass meeting at Mound City, being greatly desirous of securing permanent peace to the people of the Territory generally, and to those along the border of Missouri in particular, have this day entered into the following agreement and understanding for their future guidance and action: Art. 1st. All criminal process against any and all Free State men, for any action of theirs previous to this date, growing out difficulties heretofore existing between the Free State and Pro-slavery parties, shall be forever discontinued and

Art. 2nd. All Free State men, now held in confinement for any charges against them, on account of former difficulties between the Free State and Pro-slavery parties, to be immediately released and

Art. 3rd. All Pro-slavery men, known to have been actively engaged in the former political difficulties of the Territory, and who have been forcibly expelled, shall be compelled to remain away as a just punishment for their oft repeated and

Art. 4th. No troops, marshal, or other officer of the general government, shall be either sent or called in to enforce or serve criminal process against any Free State man on account of the troubles heretofore existing, for any act prior to this date. Art. 5th. All parties shall hereafter, in good faith, discontinue and thoroughly discountenance all acts of robbery, theft, and violence against others on account of political differences.

The committee also reported the following recommendation, which was unanimously agree to by the meeting:-That we earnestly recommend that all those who have recently taken money or other property from peacable citizens within county, immediately restore the same to their proper owners.

The meeting then adjourned.

A enequalled by any Town Company in the Territory.

The Company have just completed the largest Hotel in southern kanasa, being three stories high and containing twenty-four large, commodious sleeping and sitting rooms. In addition to the hotel, the Company have built a large Storehouse, which will soon be well filled with all the commodities needed in a country like ours. A large number of earpenters are now at work erecting residences, shops, offices, &c. The Company offer great inducements to machanics and others, wishing to locate. The town, from its central location, being the geographical center of Bourbon country, must always command an extensive trade and soon become an important town in sonthern kanasa, as it is surrounded by as GOOD FARMING LANDS as were ever tilled by the husbandman.

CLAIMS.—Good and desirable claims can be

CLIMATE.—Marmiton is situated in latitude $\tilde{N}^{-2}$ 50, and longitude, $17^{-2}$ 47 west from $\tilde{V}_{abs}$ 10 minutes a higher degree of heat than ninety, and never in the winter gets below zero. Farmers and Mechanies find no inconvenience in doing out-door work in the winter season. Cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., do well on the prairie during the entire year. There is always a pleasant breeze in the hottest days of summer, which makes the heat less oppressive than in many of the northern States. Bots will be sold at exceedingly low figures to persons desirous of building.
